COMMUTER HANDBOOK

Discipline, Knowledge, Leadership
WELCOME FROM THE DEAN OF STUDENTS

Dear Student,

Welcome to the Massachusetts Maritime Academy. For over one hundred years, this institution has been training and educating men and women to be productive, successful contributors in the maritime professions. Unfortunately, this long history of maritime excellence and the preponderance of uniformed students in the undergraduate ranks, often results in a commuting student feeling left out and very different.

Although you may feel in the minority, please be assured that when you enroll in the Massachusetts Maritime Academy, you will be welcomed into the academy family and will be entitled to all the educational benefits of the program. We are delighted that you chose us for your academic endeavors and we will do all we can to help you succeed in that pursuit. The Massachusetts Maritime Academy, has adopted a military lifestyle because it is efficient in teaching cadets the discipline and leadership. It is also required by the Federal statute, which still stands today. Despite our military appearance, we are members of the Massachusetts State University higher education system. You may dress differently from the cadets in your classes but you share the same objective, an objective to learn the material and get the degree. All of the faculty and staff are here to help you reach that objective.

This handbook is intended to acquaint you with the services available to you at the academy. You will also find what our expectations of your performance inside and outside the classroom. If you have questions in the course of reviewing this booklet or during your matriculation at the Academy, please feel free to contact LCDR Page, the commuting student advisor or refer to the Massachusetts Maritime Academy website directory at: maritime.edu/directory, to find the resources that you need. Welcome aboard, and I wish you the very best in your academic studies.

Sincerely,

Academy Regulations and Standards
The regulations, standards, rules and orders that control discipline for the Regiment of Cadets are prescribed by the President. Since all cadets must abide by this strict Code of Conduct, non-regimental students are asked to show proper respect and support for the system.

Commuter students are a part of Massachusetts Maritime Academy and therefore have joined an institution that has honored long standing maritime traditions. In keeping with these traditions, the removal of caps and hats when inside a building is expected of all students.

Dress Code
Commuting students, while outside the uniform requirements of the students in the Regiment, share in the benefits of the professional education offered by the Academy. Commuters share an equal responsibility in supporting the tone of respect necessary for the work of the Academy.
Consistent with this emphasis on professional appearance, commuting students will be required to abide by a dress code while on Academy grounds.

Any member of the Academy community who believes that he or she has been a victim of conduct in violation of this policy may initiate a complaint as promulgated in the Equal Opportunity, Diversity and Affirmative Action Plan; Discrimination/Harassment Complaint Form may be found online or in any Student Services Office.

- REPORT IT

No member of the Academy community, including a faculty member, can ignore a report of discrimination, discriminatory harassment or retaliation. He or she should provide the reporter with as much assistance in bringing it to the attention of the EO Officer or Commandant of Cadets as is reasonably appropriate given his or her position at the Academy and relationship with the reporter.

Filing a false charge of discrimination, discriminatory harassment or retaliation is a serious offense. If an investigation reveals that a person knowingly filed a false charge, the Academy may take appropriate actions and issue sanctions, up to and including expulsion, pursuant to other applicable Academy policies.
