NATURE OF ENROLLMENT

The Maritime Service is a voluntary organization. Those who are accepted for enrollment agree, by the act of enrollment, to abide by the rules and regulations of the Service and to be governed by them during such enrollment. During any period of active duty enrollees will obey the lawful orders of persons in authority under the rules and regulations of the Service. Injuries received or disease contracted by enrollees in the Maritime Service cannot be made the basis of any claim against the Government except as specifically authorized by law. Enrollees may be held financially responsible for the willful destruction, loss, sale, or disposal of Government property, and shall also be liable for prosecution therefor in the civil courts. Upon separation from active service, either by release from active duty or disenrollment, enrollees shall not be entitled to any allowances, except those specifically authorized in the rules and regulations of the Service. Upon release from the original period of active service enrollees shall be entitled to further service, active and inactive, under the rules and regulations of the Service. The duration of any enrollment shall be at the will of the enrollee, except that any enrollee may be disenrolled for cause, including physical or mental disability, misconduct, and failure to comply with the conditions prescribed by the rules and regulations of the Service. Each enrollee enrolled for training agrees that he will, upon completion of the training period, seek employment on vessels of the Merchant Marine for 1 year.

OATH OF ENROLLMENT

I, ___________________________________________ do solemnly swear (or affirm), that I have read the foregoing summary of status and that the information therein contained is true and complete according to my best information and belief; that I have read and considered the foregoing statement on the Nature of Enrollment in the Maritime Service; that I will abide by the rules and regulations of the Service and obey the lawful orders of persons in authority pursuant thereto during my said enrollment; and that I seek enrollment in the Service in good faith and with the sincere desire to improve my own efficiency and to advance the welfare of the United States Merchant Marine.

PREFATORY STATEMENT OF GENERAL ROUTINE USES

The following routine uses apply to, and are incorporated by reference into, each system of records set forth below:

1. In the event that a system of records maintained by the Department to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law or contract, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute or contract, or rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant thereto, or the necessity to protect an interest of the Department, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute or contract, or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto, or protecting the interest of the Department.

2. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current license if necessary to obtain information relevant to a Department decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

3. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a federal, state, local, or international agency, in response to its request, in connection with the assignment, hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

4. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, in the course of presenting evidence to a court, magistrate or administrative tribunal, including disclosures to opposing counsel in the course of settlement negotiations.

5. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a Member of Congress submitting a request involving an individual when the individual has requested assistance from the Member with respect to the subject matter of the record.

6. A record in this system of records which contains medical information may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the medical advisor of any individual submitting a request for access to the record under the Act and 15 CFR Part 4b, if, in the sole judgment of the Department, disclosure could have an adverse effect upon the individual, under the provision of 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) and implementing regulations at 15 CFR 46.6.

7. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the Smithsonian Science Information Exchange, Inc.

8. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular No. A-19 at any state of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

9. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the Department of Justice in connection with determining whether disclosure thereof is required by the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552).

10. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a contractor of the Department having need for the information in the performance of the contract, but not operating a system of records within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. 552a(m).

11. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, when the information qualifies for exemption under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) but the Department, in its discretion, determines not to assert the exemption.
